Notice of Privacy Policy

We are very concerned with protecting your privacy. While the law requires us to give you this disclosure, please understand that we have, and always will, respect the privacy of your health information.

We may have to disclose your health information to another health care provider or hospital, if it is necessary to refer you to them for the diagnosis, assessment or treatment of your health condition. We may have to disclose your health information and billing records to another party, if they are potentially responsible for the payment of your services.

We have a more complete notice that provides a detailed description of how your health information may be used or disclosed. You have the right to review that notice before you sign this consent form. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices as described in that notice. If we make a change to our privacy practices, we will notify you in writing when you come in for treatment or by mail. Please feel free to call us at any time for a copy of our privacy notices.

Your right to limit uses or disclosures:

You have the right to request that we do not disclose your health information to specific individuals, companies or organizations. If you would like to place any restrictions on the use or disclosure of your health information, please let us know in writing.

Your right to revoke your authorization:

You may revoke your consent to us at any time; however, your revocation must be in writing. We will not be able to honor your revocation request if we have already released your health information before we receive your request to revoke your authorization. If you were required to give your authorization as a condition of obtaining insurance, the insurance company may have a right to your health information if they decide to contest any of your claims.

I have read this Notice of Privacy Policy and agree to its terms. I am also acknowledging that I have received a copy of this notice.
